

Class of 2024

Holland Patent

Nicholas Acevedo

Plan: To attend St. John Fisher University

Major: Business

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Do homework and just get it done and out of the way because it can ease everything else and not make you have to worry about stuff. This way you can focus on what's important to you.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Complete work on time and respect teachers.

Anthony Amidon II

Plan: To enlist in the Marines

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Grind out your four years

Ella Armitage

Plan: To Attend SUNY Geneseo

Major: Adolescent Education (7-12 History)

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Live in the moment and be friends with everyone. It's the last time you will be in highschool together.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Focus on your school work and be involved.

Dustin Bailey

Plan: To attend OCC

Major: Music

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Don't let yourself get too stressed. It's your last year of high school, do what you enjoy and take things slow.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Do your work and care about your classes, ~~doing~~ these makes everything so much easier.

Dillon Baird

Plan: To seek employment with
UPS

Sarah Bangs

Plan: To attend SUNY Oswego

Major: Anthropology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Don't fall off after the beginning of the year, stay on track.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Make friends and study, both will make life easier.

Other useful advice: My school counselor was very helpful and got me the resources I needed.

Chloe Barrs

Plan: To seek employment as a CNA

Luke Benedetto

Plan: To attend St. John Fisher University

Major: Sports Management

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Focus on keeping a high GPA because it will help you get scholarships if you are trying to go to college.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Keep your grades up and try to get as much money as you can for scholarships.

Kenadie Boshart

Plan: To seek employment

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Enjoy the present, stay organized,
explore your interests, stay focused, connect with others, take care of yourself and have fun!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Make friends!

Holly Brown

Plan: To attend SUNY Oswego

Major: Business Administration

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Don't stress so much about the future and remember to embrace every moment. Have fun your senior year!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Work hard and manage your time effectively with school.

Any other helpful advice: Use Naviance to help with the college/scholarship search.

Heather Buchanan-Wise

Plan: To attend Skidmore College

Major: Political Science

Keagen Caratsole

Plan: To seek employment as a Masonary

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
You will figure it all out, sooner or later.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Take your time finding what you want to do.

Other useful advice: School counselors help-use them.

Amber Carman

Plan: To enlist in the air force

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Don't slack off and keep up on your work.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Focus on yourself and don't let other people get in the way of what you want to do. Get involved with clubs as well.

Renae Cellamare

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Business Administration

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Take advantage of the time and resources you have here. Do not get overly stressed, everything will work out eventually. Control what you can. Stay organized and get all of your tasks done on time.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Everything will be okay! Relax and enjoy the ride, focus and take pride in your school work and grades. Discover your interest and hobbies and don't forget to have fun!

Madeline Cieslak

Plan: To attend Elmira College

Major: Speech and Hearing

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Don't fall into the senioritis trap.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Be well rounded! Both grades and extracurriculars matter.

Robert Clemons III

Plan: To attend Utica University

Major: English

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Make sure to do all of your college things as soon as possible. It will remove a lot of stress from the beginning of the year.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

Try to get your required courses out of the way, and if you think you can handle them, try to sign up for college courses.

Jada Cochis

Plan: To seek employment as a hair stylist

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: It's your last year and it will fly by. Stay on top of your work, breathe, and stay focused until you're done. Make the most of each day!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: It's a big exciting change, but it's still school. Don't fall into bad habits trying to impress anyone. Do whatever makes you happy and don't be a follower.

Other useful advice: Find a safe space.

Devon Collier

Plan: To seek employment

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Make sure you aren't taking too much work on at any given time.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

Try your best!

Austin Cotton

Plan: To attend Nazareth University

Major: Musical Education

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Cherish every moment you can before it all flies by.

Nathan Craver

Plan: To seek employment with Marcy Excavating

Useful advice: Go on the job shadow

Ainsley Crossway

Plan: To attend SUNY POLY

Major: Computer Science BA/MS

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Don't be afraid to change your major.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Do your homework. Be a teenage while you can, but not at the expense of your school work. Don't try to grow up too fast, let people help you and ask questions.

Anything else that was helpful: Try to take bridge courses with colleges-it may help you narrow down what career or area of study you want to pursue.

Michaela Cushman

Plan: To attend Nazareth University

Major: Nursing

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Don't take this time for granted.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Put effort into your classes.

Calvin Dauback III

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Undecided

Conner David

Plan: To seek employment with the Adirondack Railroad

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Get a car, it will benefit you.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Get a summer job, it will help you in the end.

Other helpful advice: Join the music department.

Connor DeHart

Plan: To seek employment

Correy DeHart

Plan: To attend Keuka College

Major: Health Sciences

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: It will go by fast, so don't fall behind.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Take all the necessary classes and don't get stuck senior year with a hard schedule.

Jeffrey Dewar

Plan: To attend Clarkson University

Major: Engineering and Management

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Take the best classes you can because that helped me get into schools.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Have fun because it really does go by quicker than you than think.
Work as hard as possible because it is definitely worth it for college.

Moira Dowd

Plan: To attend University of Vermont

Major: Medical Laboratory Sciences

Kyle Erway

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Engineering Science

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Don't let Senioritis hit you.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Challenge yourself and hand in your homework.

Philip Farr

Plan: To seek employment in the electrical union

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Keep doing what you have been doing.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
The four years of high school are going to fly by.

Alexander Farrell

Plan: To attend SUNY POLY

Major: Mechanical Engineering Technology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Try to find a career you enjoy.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Just try and be respectful.

Nadia Foley

Plan: To attend St. John Fisher University

Major: Nursing

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Start the process of deciding on your future plans early.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
High school goes by fast, have fun and make memories.

Crimson Francis

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Biology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Make the best of your time. You're never going to get an experience like your senior year.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Work hard. Join extra curricular's and don't be afraid to ask for help when its needed.

Any other helpful advice: Never give up. Keep pushing even when it feels pointless or not worth it.

William Gadwaw II

Plan: To enlist in the Marines

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Stay diligent.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Respect the teachers.

Samuel Getchell

Plan: To enlist with the Air National Guard

Major: Liberal Arts and Sciences

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Cut loose a bit, you are in the home stretch.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Be nice.

Pazia Grocholski

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Childhood Education

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Go on the job shadows!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Try and figure out what you want to do.

Hannah Gwozdz

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Undecided

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: It seems stressful to figure out what you want to do with your life but remember you can always change your mind.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Live your best life. It truly doesn't matter what people may think/say about you.

Anything else that was helpful: Attend job shadows

Dylan Hayes

Plan: To seek employment in landscaping

Alexander Hoole

Plan: To attend St. John Fisher University

Major: Biology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Visit as many colleges as possible.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Work hard now to give yourself the best future.

Kyleigh Hooper

Plan: To seek employment with Oneida County 911 Dispatcher

Advice for Next Year's

Seniors: Don't let senioritis get to you and make sure to get your work done.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Keep on top of your work and stay out of drama.

Haden Horton

Plan: To attend Universal Technical Institute (UTI)

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Start preparing early for your future, in a blink your senior years are over.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
The more you dedicate to school, the more you receive your senior year.

Camrynn Howard

Plan: To attend SUNY Cobleskill

Major: Agricultural Business Management

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Apply for as many scholarships as possible and ask for help when you need it.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Don't change yourself for others. You will find your people.

Anything else that was helpful: Talking to teachers and people in your interest field is the most beneficial.

Charles Howe

Plan: Undecided

Major: Undecided

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Don't waste time on college stuff, get it done as soon as you can.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Be yourselves.

Anything else that was helpful: The school counseling office is helpful!

Hannah Hudon

Plan: To enlist in the Air Force

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Have good attendance.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Stay out of trouble.

Rory Jones

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Computer Animation

Advice for next year's Seniors
and Freshmen: Don't dropout, you're almost done!

Alice King

Plan: To attend Stony Brook University

Major: Economics

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Don't let the drama overtake your senior year.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Work hard and have fun.

Benjamin Kirkland

Plan: To seek employment with the NYS Canal Corporation

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Enjoy the last year you have!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Do your homework.

Morgan Kirkland

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Health Sciences

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Take college classes now and take take classes that will benefit your future job.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

Having one study hall is fine. Take all the classes you can earlier, so your ~~senior~~ year can be a lighter load.

Margaret Koenig

Plan: To attend SUNY Cobleskill

Major: Business Administration

Julia Larry

Plan: To attend University of Albany

Major: Mathematics

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Seniorities hits everyone.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Don't try to think you're better than upperclassmen.

Anything else that is helpful: College
Tours

Joseph Latella

Plan: To attend SUNY Geneseo

Major: Biology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Take it easy and enjoy it while it lasts.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Highschool isn't as scary as people say it is. Don't stress too much and enjoy it while you're here.

Anything else that is helpful: Find something that you really like and pursue it.

Abigail Lighthall

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Health Sciences

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Attend college/career fairs, do job shadows and apply for as many scholarships as you can.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

Stay focused and don't take it for granted because it goes by faster than you think.

Kirsten Lighthall

Plan: To attend SUNY POLY

Major: Community and Behavioral Health

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Attend college tours and apply for as many scholarships as you can.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Don't take time for granted, these years go by faster than you think.

Kairi Lilley

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Health Sciences/Nursing

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Work hard and don't stress too much. Work towards your plan.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Get what you need done and out of the way now so you can relax a bit during senior year.

Liam Locke

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Engineering

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Keep working hard until the end.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Plan out your future and take as many classes as possible.

Other helpful advice: Go on job shadows.

Logan Loisell

Plan: To seek employment at Loisell Auto Detailing

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Do your senior seminar
assignments!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Don't put too much pressure on yourself.

Isabella Makarchuk

Plan: To attend Niagara University

Major: Sports Management

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Enjoy your senior year-it flies by.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Don't put off your work. Get it done and turn it in.

Any other helpful advice: Take all opportunities given to you and don't be afraid to ask for help. Don't get caught up in the drama.

Darcey Malachowski

Plan: To attend SUNY Delhi

Major: Childhood Education

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Talk to your school counselor-they really do help and attend college fairs/tours before you commit.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Enjoy every moment-you don't realize how fast it really does go by and keep up on your work. It will make your life a lot easier.

John Manion

Plan: To attend Utica University

Major: Business Administration

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Take as many college classes as possible to get some of them out of the way.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

High school grades do count, so put all your effort into it.

Marley Manion

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Health Sciences

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Life's too short to worry about senioritis.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Enjoy High School while it lasts!

Any other helpful advice: Go on job shadows.

Terralyn McLaughlin

Plan: To attend SUNY Brockport

Major: Biology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Do as many job shadows/internships as possible to see what you may really be interested in before deciding where you go to college. Don't save scholarships for last minute.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Stay focused, keep up on work and take advantage of every second you have in high school.

Angeline Melnick

Plan: To attend Jefferson Community College

Major: Natural Sciences

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Don't give up now, you're almost there! Just try your best! Find your path and know your goals.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: It's going to be hard but high school is a lesson and a limited moment of your life. Enjoy it and don't rush it.

Any other helpful advice: Find your own way to study for a class and go on job shadows.

Dominic Mittiga

Plan: Take a gap year to travel abroad

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Enjoy your senior year!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
School will go by so fast, one day you'll miss it-so enjoy every moment.

Other useful advice: The school is ~~here~~ to help you. If you have a goal-you can make it happen!

Anthony Montoya

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Graphics/Art

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: This year isn't as laid back, try and finish the year strong.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: The first year is always easy, take your time figuring things out.

Any other helpful advice: High school is surprisingly more important in your life than just a place you're forced to be at.

Cameron Moore

Plan: Seek Employment

Advice for Next Year's

Seniors: Come to school, do not skip out. Senior year goes by fast.

Advice for Incoming

Freshmen: Be respectful and kind to everyone especially to Ms. Warwick.

Brianna Mullins

Plan: To attend SUNY Cortland

Major: Early Childhood Education

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Work hard!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Start caring about your grades now because it really does matter.

Any other helpful information: Go on the job shadow!

Michael Murray

Plan: To enlist in the Marines

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

It will go faster then you think, so enjoy your time here while you are here.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

Please behave and don't be annoying.

Riley Niemetz

Plan: To continue with cosmetology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Try to make the best of each day.
It goes by very fast.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Keep motivated and push yourself.

Landen Owens

Plan: Seek Employment

Emily Paladino

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Radiology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Just have a plan for your future, such as your college/career plans.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

Your grades count! Make sure you do the work you are supposed to as it will be worth it in the end.

Carter Poland

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Engineering Science

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Get done with senior stuff ASAP

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Classes will keep getting harder, but you will become stronger in response.

Any other helpful advice: Be persistent and unyielding, because Valiance does not die.

Madeline Poynter

Plan: To attend Siena College

Major: Psychology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Don't wait until the last minute to get things done. Midnight essays are not enjoyable.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Get involved with your school and community through clubs and sports.

Devyn Priz

Plan: To seek employment as an electrician

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Play sports.

Any other helpful information:
Counselors are great resources and can help figure out what you should do to work towards the future you desire.

Autumn Razzano

Plan: To seek employment in welding

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Do your work

Kyleigh Razzano

Plan: To attend Univerity of Maine

Major: Veterinary Technician

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Enjoy it while it lasts!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Don't talk balk to Mr. Brown

Anything else that is helpful: Job
Shadowing

Cassidy Reader

Plan: To attend Hartwick College

Major: Nursing

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Be involved/participate in school events.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Make connections with your teachers, it will get you a long way as you go through high school.

Other helpful advice: It was helpful to be able to walk into the counseling office and be helped with college.

Caedyn Rowlands

Plan: To attend Utica University

Major: Biology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Pick hard classes to boost your GPA.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Don't overload yourself. High school is hard, but it will be over before you know it.

Collin Rowlands

Plan: To Seek Employment with
Pinkos Landscaping

Paige Rowling

Plan: To seek employment in a Tattoo Shop

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Stay close to the people you can trust.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Make good friends and keep relationships that aren't full of drama.

Aiden Rubas

Plan: Undecided

Major: Business/Statistics

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Make sure to manage your time otherwise it gets stressful.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Goodluck!

Other useful advice: Go on the job shadows, it allows you to see the pros/cons of your future career.

Kaiden Rude

Plan: To seek employment within law enforcement

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Stay up to date on class projects and homework assignments.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Don't slack off.

Breanna Russell

Plan: To attend SUNY
Morrisville

Major: Pediatric Nursing

Advice for Next Year's
Seniors: Don't hold yourself back and have fun while you can.

Melbourne Sann

Plan: To attend Utica University

Major: Biology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Follow the due dates and it is a pretty simple year.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

It flies by, don't wish it away. Make friends with your teachers.

Nicole Santa Maria

Plan: To attend Binghamton University

Major: Engineering

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Start applications and college research early.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
College Tours and Job Shadows are helpful.

Joseph Schnackenberg

Plan: To seek employment

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:

Stay ahead in class it gives you more time to do other things.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:

You don't have as long as you think.

Reed Schultz

Plan: To seek employment

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Be passionate about what you are doing. Find something that can bring you joy, that way you can live a happy life.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Have fun! Don't waste your high school experience. Try different things and get out of your comfort zone. Start learning people skills because after highschool that is what you will need in your day to day life.

Elizabeth Shikula

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Health Sciences

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Even if you are unsure about a career, go on a job shadow to try it out to see what you like/dislike about it.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: The jump from middle school to high school can take a while to adjust to, but make sure that you don't fall behind on your schoolwork, that can pile up quickly. If you do miss some stuff, talk with the teachers. They are friendly and would love to help you.

Brooke Smith

Plan: To attend Utica University

Major: Early Childhood Education

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Get as many classes out of the way as you can and work on scholarships/applications early.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Stay on top of all your work and get assignments done early.

Any other helpful advice: Everything happens for a reason. It's not about the income, it's about the outcome.

Jake Smith

Plan: To attend Monroe Community College

Major: Health Studies/Dental Hygiene

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: You don't need to figure out what you want to do immediately. It can take time!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Join the swim team!

Hayleigh Southwick

Plan: To seek employment as an LPN

Advice for Next Year's

Seniors: Try your hardest and put your all into it.

Advice for Incoming

Freshmen: Don't be scared because it is not as scary as you think.

Mackenzie Stalker

Plan: To attend University at Buffalo

Major: Exercise Science

Advice for Next Year's Seniors:
Have fun and don't take this year for granted.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen:
Be nice to everyone, make friends with different people.

Trenton Stockhauser

Plan: To seek employment at Teel Steel

Advice for Next Year's Seniors and incoming freshmen: Do your work

Brian Tolbert

Plan: To seek employment with Marcy Excavation

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Show up and do your work.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Take advantage of these four years.

Tyka Van Der Klein

Major: Architecture

Advice for Next Year's Seniors
and Freshmen: Do whatever makes you happy!

Michael VanHatten

Plan: To attend SUNY POLY

Major: Mechanical Engineering

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Take your time with your assignments, overworking will make you stressed, causing you to make mistakes.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Be respectful-I understand you want to have fun but it can be bothersome to others.

Any other helpful advice: Join track! We need more kids and it is fun. You get to do multiple activities in one sport.

Payton VanNamee

Plan: To attend MVCC

Major: Health Sciences

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: It's okay not to have a plan!

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: It will be over before you know it!

Other helpful advice: Creating and sticking to a schedule for school work, getting regular and consistent sleep and staying on top of assignments before drowning in work.

Hunter Walchusky

Plan: To attend West Virginia University

Major: Pre-Med: Biology

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: It is never too early to look for the right college, it may be where you would never expect.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Every grade really does matter and will impact your future for college scholarships.

Sahara Walker

Plan: To seek employment

Matthew Wilson

Plan: To attend the Police Academy

Adam Zaishnikov

Plan: To apply as an apprentice for the Carpenters Union

Advice for Next Year's Seniors: Never give up and take senior year one step at a time.

Advice for Incoming Freshmen: Try to keep your grades up as it is important and it will help attract scholarships and opportunities that do not want to be missed.

Other helpful advice: Go on the job shadows!

Congratulations to the Class of 2024! Good luck in whatever your next step may be!